

Beer Festival Assessors – Volunteer Opportunity

Could you be one of our new Festival Assessors? A great opportunity for anyone with excel skills, an understanding of how CAMRA festivals work and a friendly and approachable nature.

In this role, you'll be helping CAMRA branches plan and deliver successful beer festivals by financially assessing a selection of festivals before approval.

Some occasional travel may be required to meet festival organisers/committees (expenses paid in line with CAMRA's Volunteer Expenses Policy).

Knowledge, skills and person specification

- A good working knowledge of CAMRA festivals and their finances.
- Good experience and understanding of using Microsoft excel and willingness to learn other systems as required (access to computer, laptop or tablet essential).
- Friendly and approachable nature, and the ability to negotiate with branches.
- Knowledge of how CAMRA works (nationally, regionally and locally).
- Willingness to adapt to different timescales as required (see below).

Hours

- Variable, depending on the festival/s you are assigned to assess.
- Assessors can go weeks without anything to assess then might have several within a few days.
- You would be expected to respond to festival requests within the agreed timescale (days).

To apply, please email Frances Lock (frances.lock@outlook.com) detailing your experience and ability to do this role. Frances will be happy to answer any questions you have about the role.
