

Commercial Committee Opportunities

CAMRA's Commercial Committee is recruiting for two new members.

Interested applicants should have:

- Grassroots branch volunteering experience relating to marketing, and/or membership recruitment.
- A willingness to be open to change.
- A passion for the organisation to succeed.
- Access to the internet via a laptop/tablet etc.

Hours and expenses

The committee meets online every quarter (via Teams) on a weekday evening, for 2 hours, with occasional meetings in-between as matters arise. There may be a face-to-face meeting held at the Great British Beer Festival in Birmingham in August (tbc) to which successful applicant/s would be invited.

For any in-person meetings, travel expenses can be claimed, in accordance with CAMRA's volunteer expenses policy.

For more information about this committee, please refer to the remit here

Interested? Please provide a short statement outlining why you wish to join the committee, and relevant experience and interest (both professional and voluntary) and send by email to:

tony.lewis@camra.org.uk

